MRS. MCCAMMON WINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Defeats Mrs. Frailey in Final Match for Chevy Chase Club

Title.

Mrs. Ormsby McCammon yesterday won the golf championship of the Chevy Chase Club, defeating Mrs. G. L. Frailey in the final by two holes.

The match was played on the hole on the eighteenth green in four shots, when, in addressing her putt, Mrs. Frailey accidentally moved the ball, which cost her a stroke, and although she ran down the putt for a 6, Mrs. McCammon sank her putt for a 5 to win by two holes.

The match was closely contested throughout. Mrs. McCammon won through her greater steadiness, though outdriven from practically every tee, her superior short game and better putting bringing her victory.

Mrs. Frailey won the first hole with a 5 to her opponent's 9. Mrs. McCammon being in trouble all the way to the green. The second and third holes were halved in 6 apiece. Both balls were in the ditch in front of the short fourth hole, and the hole was halved in leaving Mrs. Frailey 1 up. The latter topped her tee shot to the fifth hole, while Mrs. McCammon hit a fair ball down the middle and played short of the bunker in 2. Mrs. Frailey was on the green in 4 and Mrs. McCammon in 3, squaring the match.

Both women were well up in front of the bunkers guarding the sixth green in three shots. Mrs. McCammon's fourth being just on the edge of the green and Mrs. Frailey's ball on the green. Mrs. McCammon's ball was on the green and Mrs. Frailey's ball was on the green.

Mrs. Frailey had a good run-up shot, virtually dead to the hole, but the ball, putted for a half and a 6, ran around the cup, putting Mrs. McCammon 1 up.

Mrs. Frailey found plenty of trouble on the seventh. Starting with a topped tee shot to a very heavy lie, from which she got out in three, she was on the green in five and Mrs. McCammon, although her third shot ran into the bunker at the left hand side of the green, pitched out well and won the hole. Long hitting in two and a half apiece on the long eighth hole. Mrs. Frailey hit a fine tee shot and was well up in front of the bunkers guarding the ninth hole. Mrs. McCammon's ball was on the green and Mrs. Frailey's ball was on the green.

TWO GAMES PLAYED IN AMATEUR LEAGUES

General Office and Maroons Victors on Diamond—Masons Making Preparations.

BY H. C. BYRD.

General Office and Maroons won in the two amateur leagues that staged base ball games yesterday. The former defeated Shops by an overwhelming score and the latter got the long end of a 6-to-5 count from the General Baking Company. General Office counted 18 runs against 2 for Shops.

The Maroons got a lead early in the Rosedale League contest, but in the closing innings General Bakers came through with batting rallies, which nearly brought them victory. The five runs made by the losing nine were scored in the last three periods.

General Office scored five runs in the first inning and then got five more in the second. That put it on easy street and there was not much to the game afterward. Hutchinson of General Office connected while at bat with the ball for three singles and a double.

The crowds attending games in the three amateur leagues now in operation are small. In fact it is probable that fewer persons are watching the diamond contests now than at any time in the history of the leagues.

The phase of the sport here. The Rosedale circuit has not been having the big crowds that watched its contests a year ago, and the game in the Terminal Railroad Y. M. C. A. organization did not attract more than 100 spectators. Amateur baseball, as far as this year is concerned, and probably until the war is ended, is not going to be very popular around Washington.

There is one base ball game scheduled between amateur teams which is sure to draw a huge throng, one of the largest at American League Park this year—that to be played by the Masons against teams representing the Shrine and the Grotto. This contest comes off June 23, and there is no doubt that spectators around 15,000 persons, and possibly more, will watch the play. Extensive arrangements for the game are being made by the committee in charge, and good teams are being got together by the managers.

Three years ago when the idea of the Masonic ball game was broached by Robert H. Young, past master of Harmony Lodge, few persons thought that the game would be so popular. At that time it was generally supposed that the contest would be something of a failure, but it turned out a serious proposition, out of which thousands of dollars were realized for the benefit of the Masonic fund.

Each year there are certain features about the game which lend a lot to the game. Various stunts are provided, which afford much amusement and give to the contest an air of geniality not usually to be found upon such occasions.

It is always interesting to the layman as to the man who has been through the various degrees of Masonry.

STOCKHOLM, via London, May 25.—The restoration of Belgium, Serbia, Montenegro and Rumania was demanded by the Bulgarian socialist delegates in a conference with the Dutch and Scandinavian committee. They also declared themselves in favor of a national reunion of Bulgarians as a step to give permanent tranquility to the Balkans.

The Bulgarian delegates further declared that the right to settle their own affairs should be extended to all peoples, such as the Armenians and Poles, who expressed the hope that the problem of Alsace-Lorraine be settled on these lines. The convocation of a general socialist conference was also advocated.

NO PROTEST BY MEXICO AGAINST U-BOAT WAR

MEXICO CITY, May 25.—Ernesto Garza Perez, in charge of the foreign office, denies that Mexico has made any representations to Germany on the submarine issue. Senor Perez was shown a dispatch from Amsterdam which stated that the Mexican minister to Germany was believed to have protested on behalf of Mexico against unrestricted submarine warfare. He declared the Mexican government had not authorized any such representations and that Mexico had nothing to say to Germany on this subject.

SAN JUAN, P. R., May 25.—Federal District Judge Peter J. Hamilton, in a habeas corpus case, has decided that the United States Constitution applies to Porto Rico, and that indictment made by grand jury is necessary in felony cases.

"Porto Ricans," said Judge Hamilton, "are citizens of the United States and are entitled to all the constitutional rights."

In rendering his decision, Judge Hamilton said that the United States Constitution applies to Porto Rico, and that indictment made by grand jury is necessary in felony cases.

EX-NAVY CLERK ON TRIAL AS SPY IN HONOLULU

Correspondence of the Associated Press.

HONOLULU, T. H., May 25.—George Roanick, formerly chief clerk at the Pearl harbor naval station, arrested some time ago, is still in jail on a charge of being a German spy. His hearing before a United States commissioner is unfinished.

Exhibits thus far introduced at his hearing include the following, said to have been found in his possession: Loose leaf notes of change in navy regulations.

Four photographs of Pearl harbor naval station, with several sheets of typewriting.

Translations of a code message from Secretary Daniels prescribing a course to be followed in certain emergencies. A copy of a report of the Japanese cruiser Hizen, which was off this port at one time.

Capt. George R. Clark, commandant of the Pearl harbor naval station, testified that the documents in question were of an extremely confidential nature and that he had never heard of papers of like nature having been copied or tampered with.

Life Extension Institute Joins in Food Campaign

Asserts "Vegetable Garden May Be Equal of Soldier as War-Time Asset."

"A vegetable garden may be the equal to a soldier as a war-time asset."

With this admonition the Life Extension Institute of New York city today issued a bulletin, which it is distributing to the campaign for increased food production, launched two months ago by The Star in Washington.

The institute bulletin approaches the garden problem from the standpoint of hygiene, as follows:

"With a heavy demand for food products, and especially if there is a large export, there is danger of a shortage of certain classes of foods that are in the nature of 'last-of-their-kind' elements in the diet."

"Vegetables from the garden may become scarce and insufficient, even if there is government control of prices, and there is great need for a special provision against such a shortage."

The great foundation needs of the diet are the grains (flour and cereals), the legumes (peas and beans) and potatoes. These must come largely from the farm. From the garden can come those small fruits and vegetables that are expensive in proportion to the actual amount of energy that they furnish, but are nevertheless valuable because of their vitamins, minerals and bulk. Fruit and green vegetables, carrots, turnips, beets, tomatoes, cabbage, all are foods that help to vary the diet and have a valuable function, though not an indispensable one, as compared with the food foods.

The unfavorable market conditions which were experienced during the past fall and winter with regard to these garden vegetables, can be largely overcome by united effort on the part of all who have the opportunity to raise them.

"Also, there should be a full utilization of these foods in the kitchen."

There is a peculiar mental as well as physical benefit from gardening. It is very much like trout fishing. The mind rests, the body relaxes, and a gentle stream of thought, or of creative thought, can be aroused and carried on while gardening."
